I believe we need the updated slides with the questions by COB today unless they have already been sent forward.

Can you guys agree on the language for the final slide that lays out the questions we want "advice" on?

Chris – I will kick it off with some opening remarks, maybe the first slide or two, and then turn it over for you to do your every popular presentation.

Now that O'Reilly is gone, maybe they need you to step in over there at Fox - -to provide some balance.
